Vendor Committee Recommendations:

After reviewing the Ordinance for Vendors in the City of Cooper, Texas, the committee would like to make the following suggestions:

- ✓ oh 1. Change the fee to $10 a month. Feelings here are from Carl Sterling who said; "the fee was not enough." This might be easier to handle. Some vendors might just want to be here only a day or two a month, or just a month and the other recommendation makes them buy a permit for three or more months at a time. ✓
- ? use precatory language 2. We want to be sure that vendors know that for special events, they may be encouraged to participate without needing the permit or fee. Such as Chiggerfest or a Saturday sidewalk sale.
- ✓ oh 3. We would like to encourage local farmers to come and sell their produce without having to pay for their permit. We think that E under Exemptions 1.106 should read -- "local Delta County Farmers with locally grown products." ✓
- no - not in ordinance* 4. We have discussed a Market Center Area with Bill Wolfe and he is in agreement to provide the space at his station for the market area. He and the vendor will work out any space pricing on a monthly basis.
5. We do want this ordinance passed and not tabled again.

Thanks for your help and cooperation through this process.
